The excursion of Robert Morris lodge, Order of American True Ivor-ites, to Lake Arisl yesterday was a pro-nounced success. At 8 30 o'clock a train of five cars bearing about 300 excursionists left the Eric and Wyoming Valley railroad station and a successful trip was made. The already beautiful surroundings of the lake bave been greatly improved. The boat house, which before obstructed a full view of the lake, has been rebuilt and placed where the marshes were on the western shore. Forty-eight new boats have been added as well as a handsomely built steamer.

The excursionists enjoyed themselves immensely. A base ball and alley ball game were played, which created much nterest. In the afternoon many of the men raced on foot. Two largely built men, Patrick Taylor and Evan Williams, ran a 100-yard dash, which Taylor won by about two feet. Horatio T. Fellows, after winning races from Evan Jones, Roger Davis and Gomer Jones, was beaten by Councilman E. E. Robathan, who proved him-self the star runner of the occasion. Dr. J. J. Roberts figured conspicu-ously in the alley ball games. At 6.30 o'clock the excursionists made the re-turn trip, well satisfied with their day's enjoyment. Hayes' orchestra furnished music for dancing.

The guests were: Color Engineer Ferber, of the Scranton fire department; Charles Miller, of the Scranton Hook and Ladder company; T. J. Jennings, James Moir, Peter Ross, Common Councilmen Robert Robinson and Patrick Hickey, Clerk John P. Mahon of the common council, and Firemen J. Donnelly, J. P. Taylor, J. J. Thomas, Philip Schnell and J. Durkin.

President Frank Stewart presided over the "quiet time" with his quiet smile which was apparently contagious, for before they had been sitting there long every one was smiling. They seated themselves about the as-sembly room on the second floor, and T. J. Jennings, of the Scranton Hook and Ladder company, presented the Excelsiors with a handsome banner of blue and yellow silk. The ground work of the front was blue and in the center was an oil painting of the Scranton

Aerial truck. An inscription denoting that the banner was the property of the Hook and Ladder company, No. 1 of Bingham-ton, N. Y. was on the front in yellow letters. On the yellow drapery at the top was a group of ladders and hooks surmounted by a fireman's hat and on the back was "Presented to the Excelsior Hook and Ludder company of Binghamton on June 5, by the Scrautan Hook and Ludder company."

LIFE SAVED BY THE MOTORMAN

Young Friends Celebrate the Birthday of Miss Lizzie McGill, of South Washington Avenue-Those Who Were Present-Scranton Athletic Club Will Parade on Saturday Night-Minor Jottings of News.

Yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock the instant death of a little girl by the street car on Cedar avenue, near Alder street, was prevented only by the watchfulness of the motorman. The car was inward bound and moving at about four miles an hour. There is a big heap of building material close to the sidewalk on Cedar avenue in front of the new Robinson building. Several small children were at play behind the lumber, hid from the view of the approaching car. Suddenly one of them sprang out and stood in the middle of the track. She was so excited in her play that had the car been going at even its usual speed she would not have noticed it and her life would have paid the penalty.

The girl was not more than 6 years old. Fortunately Motorman Higgins applied the brakes with alacrity, and the child was saved from injury.
